The Stewards have received a Report that a private car took part in the Parade to and from Spa town on Wednesday 28th June

Driver and car No: n/a #44

Competitor: CLRT

Time (fact): 18.00hrs and 21.00hrs

Session: Parade

Fact: A member of the CLRT drove a private car in the Parade to and from Spa town

Offence: Breach of Parade Instructions And Procedure

Decision: Fine of €2000.

Reason: The Stewards heard from the Competitor's representative, Côme Ledogar, and Patrick Rome who was a witness the incidents. The Stewards note that there had been some mitigation in a communication between the Competitor and a member of the Promotor's staff in which there may have been an element of misunderstanding. However, Mr Ledogar fully understood the regulatory framework of the Parade and accepted the culpability of CLRT. Accordingly the Stewards are satisfied that breach occurred and impose the penalty cited above.

Competitors are reminded that they have the right to appeal certain decisions of the Stewards, in accordance with Article 15 of the FIA International Sporting, within the applicable time limits.
